So Upton would carry back the rejected drawings and crush them into his waste basket and start fresh the next morning with an effort to surpress his own notions about hats.

Upton always worked in secrecy. You see he was not proud of his calling. If the substantial, slow-moving chambermaid happened still to be setturned from breakfast, he was loath to get out his drawing things, but lingered over his morning paper or walked idly about his room. One day after she had left the room and he had be-gun in earnest, there was a knock at girls heads, I mean. seems 'most too good to throw away."

I just do them-to amuse myself, as it were." And the chambermaid withdrew, dragging her mop and carpet sweeper after

The hat in question was inspired by a mussel shell. Upton had seen hats that were inspired by roses and sweet peas and even by canary birds. That sort of thing was trite. He happened to have a few shells that he had gathered on the seashore the summer be fore and treasured for no very good reason, and it occured to him one day that in the graceful curves of the mussel shell and in its deep, penetrating black with brown, green and blue shadlngs, he might devise a hat that would be worth designing. The head he drew for this head was the head of a sea aympth. He always made the faces first to suit the hats-if the hat showed Japanese influence the girl was

This Kidney Medicine Enjoys Splendid Reputation

Twenty-years ago I began the sale of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and I bemarket that enjoys such a splendid reputation or has met with more success in the ailments for which it is recommended. My customers praise it and I am pleased to say that it was very effective in my trouble. It has stood the test for years on its merits and I believe with a fair trial it will accomplish what is craimed.

Very truly yours, W. O. DAVIS, Draggist. Main Street Philippi, W. Va. Nov. 29th, 1916.

Nervous Mothers

aree years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia R. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."-Mrs. B. B. Zielinska, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y. Portland, Ind.—"Ihad a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KINELE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.
